

Aliki Fatourou CV

Aliki Fatourou, holds a Diploma in Rural and Surveying Engineering and a MSc in Geoinformatics from the National Technical University of Athens, (NTUA).

She has worked as:

- Freelance Surveyor Engineer
- Public administration executive for the Ministry of Environment and Energy.
- Head of Cadaster Office for Municipalities of Kallithea and P. Faliro, from 2005 until 2010.
- General Director of the Hellenic Mapping and Cadastral Organization from 2010 to 2013.
- Executive member of the Board / Vice President at National Cadaster & Mapping Agency (N.C.M.A . S.A.), from 2013 to 2015.

She is currently working for the implementation of INSPIRE directorate on Greek Public Sector and the development of Greek National Spatial Infrastructure (Ministry of Environment and Energy / Department of Geoinformatics). She is Greece's Representative at the sub-group on Policy of the INSPIRE Maintenance and Implementation expert Group (MIG-P) and Deputy Secretary to the National Committee of Geoinformation.

She has served, as a member of the Directing Board, of the Greek Rural and Surveying Engineers Association.