

Prof. Ing. Arch HC.

Enzo Siviero

Born 1945 in Vigodarzere (Padua). In 1969, he graduated in Civil Engineering at the University of Padua. Full professor of Bridges at the University IUAV of Venice until October 2015, At present he is Rector University eCampus Italy.

He is Consultant Professor at the College of Civil Engineering of Tongji University, Shanghai-China, Adjunct Professor at Fuzhou University and Chang'An University, Xi'An-China, member of CUN, National University Council at the Ministry of Education in Rome (2007-2016).

Awarded the honorary degree in Architecture by Politecnico di Bari in 2009.

Known bridge designer, his traveling exhibition BRIDGING PONTEGGIANDO is internationally recognized as an excellent synthesis between educational research and profession. Al Idrisi Award in 2015 and Capo Circeo European Award in 2017. He has curated exhibitions on structural architecture figures such as Calatrava, Zorzi, Miozzi, Mimram, Torroja and Schlaich. He has organized national and international workshops and conferences.

Vice President of RMEI (Reséau Méditerranéen des Ecoles d'Ingénieurs) and of SEWC (Structural Engineers World Congress). He is also Deputy General Secretary of EAMC (Engineering Association of Mediterranean Countries).

Padua, February 2018