

Eng. Dimitar NATCHEV

Since 2016 Dimitar Natchev is Vice President of European Council of Civil Engineers (ECCE) and since 2014 he has been member of Executive board of ECCE. He is President of Union of Civil Engineers in Bulgaria. From 2009 to 2012 he was Vice President of European Council of Engineering Chambers (ECEC). He also served two terms as President of Chamber of Engineers in the Investment Design (CEID), Sofia and member of CEID Managing board (2004-2012). Since 2012 Natchev is member of Managing board of Bulgarian Institute for Standardization (BDS) and since 2013 he is Chairman of BDS, Technical Committee TC 101 "Sustainable Construction".

Dimitar Natchev received his Master's degree in Civil Engineering from University of Architecture, Civil Engineering and Geodesy (UACEG) - Sofia in 1980. He has 38 years' professional experience in Investment design and consulting, deep expertise in Project management, Technical Supervision, Investment control, Public Procurement.

Dimitar Natchev has a broad professional perspective, being actively involved in professional organizations in Bulgaria and at EU level.