

HUSEYIN KAYA

Member of Board of Turkish Chamber of Civil Engineers

Mr Kaya, graduated from the Middle East Technical University-Ankara, as a civil engineer.

He has been working in private sector since 1986. He worked respectively as a site engineer, design engineer, consultant engineer, site manager, Project manager and General Manager in different national and international Projects.

He was the General Secretary of Turkish Building Inspector Companies Association in 2006-2008 and the President in 2008-2012.

He was the chairman of 3.th Construction Audit Symposium Organization Committee, and Advisory Board Member of International Concrete Congress.

He was the member of the Committees of Turkish Chamber of Civil Engineers Ankara Branch for six years.

From 2016 he became the General Secretary member of Board of Turkish Chamber of Civil Engineers. He is still member of Board of TCCE in the 46th term.

He is also participating in ECCE General Meetings, and other International Events as Turkish Delegate. He is married and has a daughter and a son.