

PROFILE:

Mr. Kwame Tenadu Snr. holds a Master of Arts Degree in Environmental Management and Policy, a Land Surveyor's License, University Diploma in Geodetic Engineering and a Certificate in Land Surveying. He is a Fellow of the Ghana Institution of Surveyors and was a Governing Council Member for several years. He was a key member of the committee responsible for international relations and export of professional services, a member of and the current President of the Licensed Surveyors Association of Ghana www.lisagh.org, a member of the International Federation of Surveyors and the outgoing Chair for Commission 8 (spatial planning and economic development) www.fig.net, an associate member of the Commonwealth Association of Surveyors and Land Economists and has had over 35 years' experience in land surveying and land administration in both Ghana and Nigeria in West Africa.

Kwame is the Managing Director of Geo – Zenith Limited, a firm he founded since 1993. Since 2010, Geo Zenith Limited has been rebranded to UDANET LIMITED with expanded business to include construction and professional capacity building consultancies for land surveying professionals in West Africa.

Kwame is multi – lingual and has working knowledge level of French and Spanish. He also has over thirty year's specialist experience in surveying, land administration and management and business strategies with environmental and sustainable issues as a private sector professional. He has worked in Tanzania, Namibia, and Liberia amongst several short training and workshops.