

Eng. Maria STEFANOVA

Since 2012 Maria Stefanova is Secretary General of Chamber of Engineers in the Investment Design (CEID), region of Sofia, Member of the regional managing board. Prior to that role, she was Executive Director of (CEID), region of Sofia, responsible for international relations, European integration and project management (2004 – 2012).

Since 2013 Maria Stefanova is representative of CEID in Bulgarian Institute for Standardization, TC 101 “Sustainable Construction“ and is involved in the implementation of already developed standards related to sustainable construction.

Maria Stefanova received his Master’s degree in Civil Engineering from University of Architecture, Civil Engineering and Geodesy (UACEG) - Sofia in 1980. She holds also Master’s degree in International Economic Relations since 1991.

She has research and consulting professional experience in the areas of static and dynamic analysis of structures, earthquake analysis, software development, design and supervision of building constructions, project management.