

Nuria Raga Sastre has been serving Property Rights Registries and Regional Taxes Offices in Spain since 2004 as well as participating and contributing to several corporative activities for the Spanish Property Rights and Commerce Registrars Association (in data protection, centre of registration research and international relations). She's been on services commission for the General Directorate of Notaries and Registries (Ministry of Justice of Spain). Since 2015 is member of the Real Estate Advisory Group (REM) of the Committee on Housing and Land Administration of United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE). She's currently secretary general of the European Land Registries Association (ELRA) and coordinator of the European Land Registry Network (ELRN). She has also been involved in training activities in seminars and conferences, at University in Valencia and Barcelona, for the Spanish Agency for international cooperation and at international congresses. She is member of IDIBE (Iberoamerican Law Institute- Instituto de Derecho Iberoamericano). She's also participated in publications related to law matters.